Help Shape the Future of Englishman River Regional Park

The Regional District of Nanaimo (RDN) invites the community to review and comment on the draft management plan for Englishman River Regional Park. The management plan will guide how the park is protected, managed and improved over the next 20 years. The draft management plan is available for review and comment until November 29, 2026.

Open House

Saturday, November 14 from 12:30 - 3:30 p.m.
Errington War Memorial Hall, 1390 Errington Rd, Errington

Online Survey

Complete the online survey by November 29, at getinvolved.rdn.ca/errp-management-plan.

This is the second stage of public engagement. Community input from the first stage in April 2026 helped shape the draft plan. New feedback will help refine it to reflect community priorities while protecting this regionally significant conservation area.

Key Points

- A draft management plan for Englishman River Regional Park is available for public input.
- Input can be shared online until November 29, or in person at the open house on November 14.
- Feedback from the community will help guide how the park is protected, managed and improved over the next 20 years.

Quick Facts

- The RDN partnered with the Nature Trust of BC, Ducks Unlimited Canada, Nature Conservancy of Canada and the Province of BC to purchase the 207-hectare Englishman River Regional Park in 2005.
- The RDN manages the park on behalf of the landowners, guided by the current Englishman River Regional Park management plan.
- The updated plan will outline the vision and goals for the park and identify management policies and actions to address current challenges and improve park experience.
